On the Lighter Side

FREE COMPUTER SERVICE

Outraged by the high charges that the computer service wanted for repair work, one employee asked her co-worker which service she used.

"My sons" was the reply. "They both have degrees in Computer science."

"So you get that kind of work for nothing." The friend marveled.

The co-worker smiled. "Actually, I figured that it cost me about $140,000 for my kids to fix my computer for free."

MISSING TOWELS....

When Sam returned to the house one evening, his wife Sarah announced that the new cleaning woman they had hired had stolen two towels.

"Yeah." Said Sam very disinterested, and reclining on the sofa, "that wasn't very nice of her to do."

"You're sure right it wasn't," Sarah said. "And they were the two best towels we had.... You know the ones we got from the Hilton Hotel while we were on vacation!"

2020 CHAPTER COUPLE OF THE YEAR CORNER

Well the adventures this year have been a little soggy, but we are still on the go. After the Polar Bear ride this year, we started planning places and friends we wanted to see and connect with.

In January visitation of other Chapters was front and center to wish old friends a Happy New Year and find out what was going on in their Chapters. We attended four GA. Chapters and two AL. Chapters. While we were between Chapter S and Chapter T meetings, we had a whole day to explore a couple of interesting places. The first one was the Tree That Owns Itself. According to legend, the tree has legal ownership of itself and eight feet of its base. The tree is located in Athens, Ga. Next stop was the GA. Guide Stones. The Guide Stones are a granite monument erected in 1980 in Elbert Co. GA. A set of 10 guidelines is inscribed in the structure in eight modern languages and a shorter message is inscribed at the top of the structure in four ancient language scripts. The last stop was the Elberton Museum and Exhibit featuring historical exhibits, artifacts and educational displays. Among the unique granite creations is the Confederate statue called "Dutchy". This (the first statue crafted of Elberton Granite) did not please local Confederate veterans who "lynched" him in 1900. He was toppled and buried on Elberton's Sutton Square. Records pointed to his location on the square and in 1982 he was carefully exhumed, and now occupies a place of honor in the Granite Museum. It was a great day to ride and fun visiting all the sites.

In February we were off and running. Berry Ownes presented a class on Are U Ready to Ride. Everyone had good input and a few laughs. Great job to Berry. As we were already in South GA. a short trip over to AL-M meeting in Phenix City. Along the way a quick stop n Albany, GA. to see the Ray Charles Plaza along the Flint River. Absolutely worth the visit.

The following weekend AL-N in Rainbow City, AL. had their annual Chill Cook Off. There were over 20 chill's and wonderful desserts. More than 106 GWRRA members from across AL attended. WE had a great time with good friends.

The rest of February was tied up with CPR and First Aid, so we can keep up our levels as Master Tourers. Last but not least was the Officers Conference. Shirley, Randy, Becky, Woody and myself went down the night before. After an enjoyable dinner we all played UNO. Shirley thought she was so smart in staying with the lowest score but we all got her (Sorry Shirley). The conference was great and of course we came home with the plaque from lady year and the Chilly Willy little penguin.

To top off the month was dinner at The Steakhouse in Rockmart, GA. We had 17 B-2 members attending. What a great evening of fun, laughs and fellowship.

Until next time, ride safe and come join in the fun.
